

Tammy Lechner was contracted by Freedom Communications to be part of an editorial team brought together to launch a magazine division through the Orange County Register beginning June 2000. Publications included the monthly OC HOME Magazine, and bi-monthly Golf Extra Magazine. As photo editor for the magazine division until April, 2004 Lechner directed the visual content and of both magazines in print and on-line. This included hiring and supervising photographers, editing all visual content, working with the production on design and quality control, developing issue themes and department features, and contributing ideas to budget meetings.

